Rc.No.APSCHE/AC/ Notices to PUDCs/2021-22

Dt: 13.05.2022

PRESS NOTE

The A.P State Council of Higher Education accords permission to establish Private Unaided Degree College in accordance with powers accrued vide G.O Ms.No.278 Dt: 24.07.1995 with a view to provide access to higher education and to improve Gross Enrolment Ratio. While according sanction, the Council also stipulates a condition in the proceedings that the society should obtain affiliation from the University concerned. The A.P State Council of Higher Education has issued show cause notices to Private Unaided Degree Colleges which

- i. have not obtained affiliation from the respective University for the last three years and
- ii. have not made admissions in some of their programmes for the last three years

The Managements of the Colleges were directed to submit a written explanation on the failure of the College for not obtaining affiliation/for not making admissions for the last three years and for running the Colleges without maintenance of standards in instructional and infrastructural requirements.

The Committee submitted its report on 07.04.2022. Based on the report of the Committee, the documents submitted by the Colleges and the written statements, the Council has withdrawn permission to 24 Private Unaided Degree Colleges and withdrawn 354 programmes in 209 Private Unaided Degree Colleges from 2021-22. The details of Colleges to whom permission/programmes were withdrawn from 2021-22 are given hereunder:
