Cir.No.APSCHE/AC/UG Courses/2021-22

Dt: 14.06.2021

CIRCULAR

It was decided in the review meeting on Higher Education, held by Hon'ble CM on 12.02.2021 that Degree Colleges in A.P shall offer programmes in English Medium only from the academic year 2021-22. Accordingly, online applications for sanction of new/additional programmes and conversion of combination/medium in English Medium only were invited from from existing Private Degree Colleges vide notification of the Council Dt: 27.04.2021. It was also mentioned in the guidelines of APSCHE under point III 2 (ii), that applications for New Un-Aided 4 Year UG Honours Programmes in English Medium only will be accepted from 2021-22.

Therefore, all the Private Unaided Degree Colleges and Private Aided Colleges offering Unaided Courses in TM are requested to submit proposal for conversion of all existing Telugu Medium sections into English Medium, with the exception of Languages under Part-II along with the required documents to the Council from 18.06.2021 to 28.06.2021. Managements may note that if proposal for conversion into English Medium is not submitted, then the programme cannot be offered from 2021-22 and requests submitted at a later point of time will not be entertained.

It is further informed that Private Unaided Degree Colleges and Private Aided Degree Colleges with Unaided Degree programmes who desire to surrender unviable and/or defunct UG programmes can also withdraw the programmes by submitting proposal from 18.06.2021 to 28.06.2021.

Managements need not pay any processing fee either for conversion of medium or withdrawal of programmes
