Cir.No.APSCHE/AC/UG/PG Courses/2021-22

Dt: 14.06.2021

CIRCULAR

The A.P State Council of Higher Education has issued notification Dt: 27.04.2021 calling for online applications for starting of UG and PG Courses from existing Private Degree/Degree & PG Colleges from 2021-22. The applications received online have been scrutinized. The deficiencies identified in the proposals are noted against the college in the attachments.

In view of the existing pandemic situation, in-person counseling for verification of original documents will not be held for proposals submitted for 2021-22 academic year. The Managements of the Private Colleges can access the deficiencies to be rectified through the college login by using the credentials used for filling the application form and by clicking on 'Deficiencies' under Step 4.

The documents towards rectification of deficiencies are to be uploaded under 'Deficiencies'. The Managements shall upload documents pertaining to the deficiencies only. Documents that are previously uploaded will be deleted once the new ones are uploaded in their place. A notarized self-declaration/undertaking on Rs.100 stamp paper signed by both the Management and the Principal of the Degree College that (i) the documents uploaded are original and genuine (ii) the Management and the Principal undertake the responsibility for correctness of information furnished and documents uploaded and (iii) that they understand that if the Government or Competent Authority notices at any point of time that the information/documents furnished are false or tampered, the authorities shall initiate appropriate action as per law

The Managements of all Private Colleges are informed that the documents towards rectification of deficiencies can be uploaded from 16.06.2021 to 25.06.2021.
